BIO

Today, Static & Ben El are Israel's top and most-streamed duo, and they were the first artists signed to Haim Saban's new music venture, Saban Music Group (SMG). At the top of 2020, they released "Further Up" with Pitbull. The track was a success as it received unprecedented media coverage, 80 million streams across all platforms, and over 40 million views on YouTube. The Spanish version, "Subelo," went #1 on Billboard's Latin Radio Airplay Chart. In July 2020, they released "Milli" featuring Flipp Dinero, followed by "Shake Ya Boom Boom," featuring Black Eyed Peas, which was released in October 2020. "Shake Ya Boom Boom (Spanglish)" followed, with Black Eyed Peas, Chesca, and Blessd.

2021 included a triumphant visit to Los Angeles and a sold-out one-night-only show at the El Rey Theatre. Soon after, they released "Bella," which was followed by a collaboration with the fast-rising rapper 24kGoldn in early 2022. Catchy lyrics, melodic hooks, and this Israeli duo's signature style perfectly aligned with the fresh and explosive flow of 24kGoldn. Their music has amassed 100+ million streams and 803+ million YouTube views. With more music in the pipeline featuring collaborations from some of the world's top artists, there is no stopping for this duo.
